Oxfam is a global movement of people working together to end the injustice of poverty.

We tackle the inequality that keeps people poor. Together we save, protect and rebuild lives. When disaster strikes, we help people build better lives for themselves, and for others. We take on issues like land rights, climate change and discrimination against women. And we won't stop until every person on the planet can enjoy life free from poverty.

We are an international confederation of 20 organizations (affiliates) working together with partners and local communities in the areas of humanitarian, development and campaigning, in more than 90 countries.

All our work is led by three core values: Empowerment, Accountability, Inclusiveness.

Oxfam is committed to preventing any type of unwanted behavior at work including sexual harassment, exploitation and abuse, lack of integrity and financial misconduct; and promoting the welfare of anyone. Oxfam expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment through our code of conduct. We place a high priority on ensuring that only those who share and demonstrate our values are recruited to work for us.

Note: All offers of employment will be subject to satisfactory references and may be subject to appropriate screening checks, which can include a misconduct disclosure scheme, criminal records and terrorism finance checks.

The context / The project

Since May 2015, Serbia, like other countries in the Western Balkans, has seen a massive influx of refugees and migrants in transit from Greece to Hungary or Croatia. Oxfam Italia is committed to respond to the needs of refugees and migrants who are crossing specifically Serbia and FyROM. Currently, through the EU Regional Trust Fund (EUTF) in Response to the Syrian crisis ('Madad fund'), Oxfam Italia is providing food to around 5,000 migrants, refugees and asylum seekers hosted in 15 reception centres in Serbia. The food distribution is expected to be completed by the end of January/beginning of February to be resumed by the governmental authorities and other INGOs/IGOs, nevertheless Oxfam Italia, is planning to continue its presence in the country to contribute to increasing human rights protection.

The current EUTF project is implemented by a Consortium of three organisations – Oxfam Italia, CARE Deutschland and CARITAS Serbia – and aims to assist migrants, refugees and asylum seekers in Serbia in accessing nutritious and culturally appropriate food (three meals per day). The project is building on the lessons learned by the 4 partners in previous implementation of food provision activities, in coordination with ECHO, the Commissariat for Refugees and other Serbian authorities, UN agencies and other humanitarian actors.

The “Food Consortium” requires a Chief of Party, who will ensure timely and quality implementation of the consortium’s project, according to the approved proposal and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the donor and will facilitate effective coordination between consortium partners and strategic external relations with local authorities, INGOs/NNGOs/INGOs and donor in country and at Brussels level.

The position will be hired and managed by Oxfam Italia HQ based in Florence, as leader of the Consortium, and will directly report to Oxfam Italia Head of Humanitarian Office.

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Chief of Party will be the final responsible for the following tasks:

- Providing overall project leadership, management, and technical coordination;
- Ensuring external representation of the Food Consortium activities and mission;
- Ensuring compliance to contractual rules (with donor and partners) including purchase and visibility rules and to Oxfam’s policies and SOPs;
- Supervising project technical and support (administrative and logistic) staff;
- Liaising with governmental counterparts to support the Action and future collaborations;
- Participating in internal/external evaluations to assess progress and contributing to put in place recommend solutions;
- Coordinating board and steering committee meetings and representing the food consortium at sector meetings and meetings with external stakeholders;
- Provide strategic guidance in unifying approaches between Consortium members across different reception centres and ensure the application of common quality standards in food provision and M&E between the partners in all the phases of humanitarian response;
- Oversee the financial management system for the project, and – in conjunction with the Finance Manager – develop and monitor the project budget;
- Lead on intermediate and final narrative and financial reports in coordination with the Finance Manager and the Programme Coordinator and ensure quality and time effectiveness of reporting processes;
- Manage the Consortium Team: Field Monitors, Programme Coordinator, Strategic Partnership Manager, MEAL Manager, MEAL Officer, Finance Manager, Finance Officer, Finance Assistant, and #2 consultants (Nutritionist and MEAL).
- Participating to new proposal development in line with the Protection Strategy for Serbia.

This job description is not incorporated in the employment contract. It is intended as a guide and should not be viewed as an inflexible specification as it may be varied from time to time in the light of strategic developments and following discussion with the post holder.
