ECHO: The European Commission's Humanitarian Aid and Civil Protection department (ECHO), funds relief operations for victims of natural disasters and conflicts outside the European Union. Aid is channeled impartially, straight to victims, regardless of their race, ethnic group, religion, gender, age, nationality or political affiliation.

OXFAM: Oxfam is an international confederation of 17 organizations networked together in more than 90 countries, as part of a global movement for change, to build a future free from the injustice of poverty

FEG: The Food Economy Group has been on the leading edge of livelihoods-based food security information systems, policy analysis and complex-process facilitation services for over a decade, contributing to the efforts of a broad range of decision makers in the humanitarian and development community. Its work in countries throughout Africa, Asia and Latin America has consistently focused on linking decision makers to the realities of poor people, across rural and urban communities, in pastoral and agricultural settings, and within both fragile states and settled communities.

The Food Economy Group continues to set the standard for translating complex livelihoods into comprehensible outputs so that the needs of those most in need are understood and prioritized.
